Session 1 — "We Be Goblins!" | Pre-logbook

remembered | Source: GM notes T2, player memory T4

Location: Licktoad Village / Brinestump Marsh | Party: Sneaky Scorch, Rrrahah Bäähh, Bubble Bomb, Shvub-Mah (core four only)

- Party begins as young goblins in the whelping cage of Licktoad Village. Level 0 start — GM modification confirmed by Creative Director.

Also found: remains of Scribbleface — a Licktoad goblin outcast banished for reading/writing, who had come to the ship and not left. A dog named Cuddles (in the galley) was part of Vorka's arrangement at the ship.
- Return through marsh to Licktoad Village. Note: The encounter with Magical Maggie occurred before this session — on the road after the Cave of Darkfear pre-story quest, before the Kaijitsu Star mission. Her looted map (red X on Paddlefoot Farm) is the hook for the Squealy Nord recovery.

Sessions 2–5 — Pre-logbook Events (approximate)

remembered | Source: GM notes T2 (confirmed details) + player memory T4

Location: Licktoad Village → various | Party: Core four + possibly Wee Goo/Vigo (fill-in)

- Village defense: After returning from the first ship, party found their village being attacked — skeletons fighting humans. Party defeated remaining skeletons. Two humans escaped. First celebration.
- Squealy Nord goes missing: After the first celebration. Elders pointed toward Paddlefoot Farm (from Magical Maggie's looted map).
- Squealy Nord recovery — Paddlefoot Farm: remembered — T3. Party went to Paddlefoot Farm. Recovered Squealy Nord from a cage. Some humans had a worse day than planned. Second celebration louder than the first.

- Second ship expedition: Found a chest with a hilt (old iron, part of a larger weapon). Inside: a rolled paper with text. None of the eight read it. The skeleton on the Kaijitsu Blossom (the ship with rockets/fireworks) was an officer who gave the party a mithril sword handle. remembered — T3
 - Night at the abandoned farmhouse: Rested in an abandoned farm. An ogre attacked in the night. Shvub-Mah kited the ogre through the house repeatedly until the ogre was badly wounded and failed to eat him.
 - Fire-breathing pig capture: Following the ogre's trail, party was attacked by a fire-breathing pig. Shvub-Mah insisted on catching it alive. Wrestled it down, tied its snout shut. This is Princess Crackling — a completely separate pig from Squealy Nord. confirmed — T2 (GM notes)
 - Licktoad Village destroyed: On return, found the village burned. Skeletons still moving — defeated. Party walked north. Squealy Nord was NOT with the party — he had been captured by Pa Munchmeat before or during the destruction and was held at Manschmied Farm (freed there later). remembered — CD memory; Squealy Nord location confirmed GM T2, 2026-04-05

Open Questions

- Q-NPC-02: The human-orc figure at the Thistletop climbing encounter is unidentified. Module equivalent: Orik Vancaskerkin (human fighter, mercenary). Not confirmed as campaign canon.
- Q-NUALIA-01: Nualia's status. Whether she was fought and defeated is not recorded in available T1-T3 sources.
- Q-SESSIONS-02-05: Sessions 2-5 are reconstructed from GM notes (T2) and player memory (T4). Exact session boundaries unknown.

Resolved Questions

- Q-DATE-01 (resolved): Pflingsten vs. March 2025 — FoundryVTT T1 shows 3/15/2025. Session header corrected to "March 2025." confirmed
- Q-NPC-01 (resolved): The "helpful NPC" in campaign beat 23 is Shalelu Andosana. Confirmed by T3 + T1 (3/15/2025). She briefed the party BEFORE the assault, not on the return. confirmed
- Village destruction cause (resolved as in-world mystery): An adventuring party disturbed the dead on the Kaijitsu Blossom; the undead followed them back. The adventurers' identity is unknown to the goblins. The rolled paper in the sword hilt may resolve this — it has not been read. This is an active plot thread.
