

Shalelu Andosana — The Ranger

Identity

- Name: Shalelu Andosana
- Species: Elf
- Class: Ranger
- Alignment: Presumed good (ally of Sandpoint)
- Role: Self-appointed monitor of goblin activity along the Lost Coast; unofficial ally to Sandpoint

First Appearance — March 2025 (Leer session, FoundryVTT 3/15/2025)

Shalelu's first confirmed in-campaign appearance is the Leer session (March 2025), before the Thistletop assault. The encounter on the return from the Kaijitsu Star was not Shalelu — that was Magical Maggie (Maggdelena Stackdeck), a half-elf traveling merchant (see the Paddlefoot Farm page). Earlier lore versions incorrectly recorded Shalelu here; corrected from We B4 Goblins! (T1).

The Birdcruncher Meeting — March 2025 (Leer session, FoundryVTT 3/15/2025)

Shalelu appeared at the Birdcruncher territory area and briefed the party before the Thistletop assault — not on the return. This is confirmed by T3 session log and T1 FoundryVTT. T3 beats T4 on sequence.

- Session log (T3): "Shalelu Andosana getroffen (Elfin, hat gesagt Razertooth machen unfug mit Lamashtun), wenn wir zusammenarbeiten sorgt sie auch dafür dass wir nach Sandpoint rein dürfen." — Met Shalelu (elf woman, said Razertooth are up to trouble with Lamashtu); if we cooperate she'll ensure we can enter Sandpoint.
- The deal: Party cooperates against the Thistletop Lamashtu cult → Shalelu guarantees entry to Sandpoint.
- FoundryVTT (3/15/2025): Shalelu Andosana appears in the roll log from 10:07 PM onward, making multiple checks. confirmed — T1
- She is the "helpful NPC" in campaign beat 23 (our-campaign-story.md, Q-NPC-01). Identity no longer unknown.

This meeting fundamentally defines her significance: she is not a one-time informant but an active ally who brokered the party's access to Sandpoint. The party's mission to bring back Nualia's head was connected to this deal.

Relationship to the Party

- First confirmed meeting: Birdcruncher territory, March 2025 — not hostile, which for an elf dealing with goblins is unusual.
- The Paddlefoot Farm tip did not come from her. That came from a map looted off Magical Maggie (the half-elf merchant from the Kaijitsu Star return). Earlier records incorrectly attributed this to Shalelu.
- Birdcruncher meeting (Leer / March 2025): Brokered a formal cooperation deal. The party works against the Lamashtu cult; she ensures Sandpoint entry. This is an ongoing alliance.
- Confirmed active in FoundryVTT during the Thistletop approach session (3/15/2025).

Background (from Rise of the Runelords)

In Rise of the Runelords, Shalelu is an experienced elven ranger who has spent years learning about the five goblin tribes near Sandpoint, motivated partly by personal loss (her stepfather Jakardros Sovark was killed by Bruthazmus, the bugbear at Thistletop). She visits Sandpoint periodically, brings information about goblin movements, and receives meals and lodging at the Rusty Dragon. She does not live in town. She is described as self-sufficient and dangerous.

Status

Active ally. Last confirmed appearance: March 2025 / Leer session (FoundryVTT 3/15/2025). The Sandpoint-entry deal is presumably active — the party had not entered Sandpoint by the end of the known campaign record.
