

Razertooth Territory

Overview

A jungle/forest area that served as the base of operations for the Razertooth goblin tribe. Gogmurt the druid and his animal companion Tangletooth operated here. The Birdcruncher tribe's captured members were held prisoner in this territory before the party freed them (Session ~18.01.2025).

Campaign Events

Birdcruncher Prisoner Rescue

The Razertooth tribe had imprisoned a group of Birdcruncher goblins in this territory. The party mounted a rescue operation:

1. The party killed two Razertooth patrol groups on approach.
2. They engaged and defeated Gogmurt, his animal companion Tangletooth, Razertooth dogs, and Razertooth goblins.
3. The Birdcruncher prisoners were freed.
4. The liberated Birdcrunchers fled to the forest but remained watching from a distance rather than departing immediately.

confirmed — T1 FoundryVTT (1/19/2025), T3 session log (18.01.2025)

Featherbrain's Intel

After being freed, a Birdcruncher named Featherbrain told the party that Ripnugget was planning to attack Sandpoint and sacrifice everyone there to Lamashtu. This was the party's first direct confirmation of the scale of the threat.

Key Combatants

- Gogmurt — Razertooth goblin druid. Defeated here. Dropped: Staff +1, Cloak of Gnawing Leaves, Studded Leather armor.

- Tangletooth — Gogmurt’s animal companion (confirmed: cat, per FoundryVTT T1).
Defeated here.
- Razertoath patrol goblins (two groups killed on approach).
- Razertoath dogs.

Connections

- Thistletop — Chief Ripnugget’s primary base; the broader Razertoath/Thistletop operation headquarters.
- Birdcruncher Territory — Origin of the freed prisoners; prisoners returned there.

Notes

- Gogmurt’s companion is confirmed as “cat” (Tangletooth) by FoundryVTT T1.
- The Birdcrunchers watching from the forest after being freed is a narrative detail from the T3 session log.
